

© 2011, Allman
F. 4. 2011

Please join Norfolk Historical Society as we welcome Mark Walsh to our Second Wednesday stage in April.

A Canadian by birth, Mark is a War of 1812 re-enactor who portrays an officer in the British Indian Dept. He is also a Mason. His topic will be:

"Grand Masters, Cranes, Fleets and Warriors: Virginia, Masons, and the War of 1812."

Wednesday, 11 April 2012, 7:00 PM

Kaufman Theatre, Chrysler Museum of Art, 245 W Olney Road

Free to members of Norfolk Historical Society or Friends of Historic Houses. $5.00 for all others.

Light refreshments follow the program.
