

Historic Staunton River Foundation

Dear Fellow Statesmen & Countrymen,

On Sunday, May 17 at 2:00PM, the Historic Staunton River Foundation, Inc. in conjunction with the Department of Historic Resources, the Virginia Department of Transportation, and the 1812 Bicentennial Commission, will host an unveiling Historical Highway Marker dedicated to John Randolph of Roanoke.

Please refer to the map for the exact location along the Highway 360 and Rt. 607 (River Road) intersection, where the unveiling ceremony will take place.

We are pleased to announce that Mr. David Johnson, a biographer of John Randolph of Roanoke, will be the keynote speaker.

Following the unveiling ceremony, a reception will be held at the Roanoke Station Depot in historic Randolph, Virginia.

We hope you will make every effort to attend this historic and memorable event. The event is free and open to the public.

We ask that you please RSVP since we will be hosting a Reception and need to have an idea of how many to prepare for, so please take a moment to contact the Historic Staunton River Foundation and RSVP at info@HistoricStauntonRiverFoundation.org or phone 434-603-1021 or 434-454-7157.

Thank you for supporting your local and national history.

Sincerely,

Janet Johnson
President
Board of Trustees
Historic Staunton River Foundation

